

FOR YOUR INFORMATION:

The Parish Nurse Say: The Center for Disease Control says drinking water helps to keep your body temperature normal. It also helps to lubricate and cushion your joints. Water is sugar free and has zero calories. Check the bulletin board for great reasons to drink water.

April is National Volunteer Month: Much of Commonwealth Catholic Charities success depends on volunteers—caring individuals who share their unique talents and skills to make life better for others. In 2017, CCC was blessed by 201 volunteers who provided over 9,000 hours of service to the agency around the state. To learn about volunteer opportunities in your area, visit www.cccofva.org.
