

LECTOR SCHEDULE

May 2018

Final

Lectors are reminded to arrive 10 - 15 minutes prior to the Mass start time in order to review the Lector Notes for the day. Please pay particular attention to the pronunciation of the names of those listed as sick, deceased, and for whom the Mass is being offered.

A word or two is necessary concerning inappropriate dress while performing our ministry. Inappropriate dress items include, but are not limited to, jeans, cutoffs, shorts of any kind, tank tops, tube tops, halter tops, muscle shirts, sports team or player jerseys, tee shirts, flip flops, and of course sneakers. In addition, bare toes are not appropriate. Our footwear should be of a style that completely covers the toes. If a footwear style such as sandals or a “peek-a-boo” open toe is worn, the appropriate hosiery must also be worn. Further, bare shoulders would not be appropriate. We are an integral part of the liturgy, and our dress must reflect that fact.

In those situations where two options are provided for a given Reading, you must prepare for both options; then, before Mass, ask the priest or deacon delivering the homily, which option to use.

Reader 1: Please begin reading Welcome, Information, and the Focus, five minutes PRIOR to start of service. (This should be completed prior to father entering the church)

Reader 2: Please ensure you are able to get to the lectern within a few seconds upon completion of the Responsorial.

LECTORS - AT THE END OF MASS, BOTH LECTORS ARE TO BE A PART OF THE RECESSIONAL OUT OF THE SANCTUARY.

HELP! As you see, our list of Lectors is getting smaller and smaller. I need everyone's help in adding members to the list. We all know this is a wonderful ministry that allows us to speak the word of our Lord. Please help me identify others to help with this ministry. Thank you.
